Resurrection Day

Luke 24:2-3

They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

John 11:25-26

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

Acts 4:33

With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And God's grace was so powerfully at work in them all.

1 Peter 1:3

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Mark 15:46-47

So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where he was laid.

Luke 24:6-7

He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'

Acts 3:15

You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:3-8

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance. Or you at the first: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas. That is, Peter and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

Mark 16:5-7

As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sit-

The re-imagining committee will be meeting in late April to discuss our options for outdoor worship and eventually indoor worship. Of course we will be following the guidelines of our Bishop and District Superintendent. We are all anxious to worship together again in a safe manner. Submission by Diane Peters ting on the right side, and they were alarmed. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'

Luke 23:46-47

Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last. The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, "Surely this was a righteous man."

"Philippians 2:8

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death— even death on a cross!

Colossians 1:13-14

For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption,

Resolving to Defend Inclusive Democracy in 2021

Peaceful protest is a cornerstone of our democracy. But violence of any kind destroys the fabric of our society. The attack on our U. S. Capitol and anti-democratic action in Salem and Olympia bring new meaning and focus to what we must resolve to do together to end hunger.

We can't achieve key anti-hunger policy goals without an inclusive democracy that works for everyone. Anti-democratic tactics jeopardize our mission, vision and the well-being of millions of Oregonians.

This year, we have seen our community come together like never before, and we have hope that we will emerge stronger from these crises. We hope you'll join us in defending the kind of inclusive democracy we need to advance anti-hunger policies.

Thank you for standing with us in the fight to end hunger and for the work we'll do together to ensure an inclusive democracy that works for all of us.

Returning to Portland, she met Leonard, and they were married in 1975. She taught at OHSU until retirement in 1982. She and Leonard had built a house outside Sher-
